Please read this agreement carefully before signing and dating

All adults ≥21 years of age wanting to join the Tyrol Ski & Mountain Club require a Regular Membership. Dependent children of members, that have turned 21 years during the financial year starting October 1 must apply for membership and pay the single annual fee for that calendar year. The initiation fee and the requirement for sponsorship is waived if, and only if, they join that year and continue to be a member in good standing. Any members that default on paying annual dues, or other payments, must re-apply for membership and pay the Regular Member initiation fee and all subsequent associated fees and levies.

Waiver: In consideration of the acceptance of this application, the applicant, or his/ her parent(s) or guardian(s), agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Tyrol Ski & Mountain Club, its executive, representatives, assigns, members and contractors, from any and all claims arising out of any delay, injury (including death), loss or damage to the persons covered by this application, or their property, occasioned by any cause whatsoever, including negligence.

Privacy: Personal Information necessary for Tyrol Ski & Mountain Club ("The Club") events, programs, membership database and activities is collected, used, maintained, disclosed, protected and disposed of according to the consent of Club members, and the law. The Club will collect such Personal Information as reasonably necessary for the purpose of the Club's activities and will reasonably ensure accuracy, privacy and security of Personal Information.

Work Weekend Expectation: The club holds a minimum of 2 (two) work weekends each year. Other work weekends for special projects are scheduled on occasion as the need arises. Every Regular member is expected to attend at least 1 (one) of the 2 (two) yearly scheduled work weekends. Failure to do so may result in membership privileges being revoked by the Board of Directors, or will be required to compensate The Club in an alternate form.
